FBI FOIPA Addendum

As referenced in our letter responding to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request, the FBI FOIPA Addendum provides information applicable to your request. Part 1 of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. Part 2 includes standard responses that apply to requests for records about individuals to the extent your request seeks the listed information. Part 3 includes general information about FBI records, searches, and programs.

Part 1: The standard responses below apply to all requests:

- (i) 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress excluded three categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIPA [5 U.S.C. § 552(c)]. FBI responses are limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIPA. Additional information about the FBI and the FOIPA can be found on the www.fbi.gov/foia website.
- (ii) Intelligence Records. To the extent your request seeks records of intelligence sources, methods, or activities, the FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and as applicable to requests for records about individuals, PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(1), (b)(3), and (j)(2)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact protected by FOIA exemption (b)(1) and/or would reveal intelligence sources, methods, or activities protected by exemption (b)(3) [50 USC § 3024(i)(1)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that any such records do or do not exist.

Part 2: The standard responses below apply to all requests for records on individuals:

- (i) Requests for Records about any Individual—Watch Lists. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of any individual's name on a watch list pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that watch list records do or do not exist.
- (ii) Requests for Records about any Individual—Witness Security Program Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could identify any participant in the Witness Security Program pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(3), 18 U.S.C. 3521, and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.
- (iii) Requests for Records for Incarcerated Individuals. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any incarcerated individual pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

Part 3: General Information:

- (i) Record Searches. The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for reasonably described records by searching systems or locations where responsive records would reasonably be found. A standard search normally consists of a search for main files in the Central Records System (CRS), an extensive system of records consisting of applicant, investigative, intelligence, personnel, administrative, and general files compiled by the FBI per its law enforcement, intelligence, and administrative functions. The CRS spans the entire FBI organization, comprising records of FBI Headquarters, FBI Field Offices, and FBI Legal Attaché Offices (Legats) worldwide; Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records are included in the CRS. Unless specifically requested, a standard search does not include references, administrative records of previous FOIPA requests, or civil litigation files. For additional information about our record searches, visit www.fbi.gov/services/information-management/foipa/requesting-fbi-records.
- (ii) FBI Records. Founded in 1908, the FBI carries out a dual law enforcement and national security mission. As part of this dual mission, the FBI creates and maintains records on various subjects; however, the FBI does not maintain records on every person, subject, or entity.
- (iii) Requests for Criminal History Records or Rap Sheets. The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division provides Identity History Summary Checks – often referred to as a criminal history record or rap sheet. These criminal history records are not the same as material in an investigative “FBI file.” An Identity History Summary Check is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. For a fee, individuals can request a copy of their Identity History Summary Check. Forms and directions can be accessed at www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. Additionally, requests can be submitted electronically at www.edo.cjis.gov. For additional information, please contact CJIS directly at (304) 625-5590.
- (iv) National Name Check Program (NNCP). The mission of NNCP is to analyze and report information in response to name check requests received from federal agencies, for the purpose of protecting the United States from foreign and domestic threats to national security. Please be advised that this is a service provided to other federal agencies. Private Citizens cannot request a name check.

Re: SUBMARINE ACTIVITIES IN LOS ANGELES AREA
WAR GAMES DURING OCTOBER
ESPIONAGE

Dear Sir:

On October 16, 1943, [redacted] telephonically advised me at 3:00 P.M. that he had just received word from San Francisco to the effect that the FBI office and [redacted] would not be subject to commando attack in the war games which were presently being conducted in this area.

On October 17, 1943, [redacted] telephonically advised that [redacted] was desirous of talking with [redacted] and me as soon as possible, and I immediately proceeded to [redacted] in Pasadena with [redacted]. He immediately conferred with us and stated that he had received information from San Francisco to the effect that we were deeply concerned with the possibility of attack on our office or facilities, and he wanted to make certain that we understood we would not be attacked in any manner.

I informed him definitely that we were not unduly concerned about it at any time; however, we had received information that possibly our office would be subject to attack and, therefore, had taken appropriate action to safeguard our interests, and that to do so did tie up investigative personnel which are needed for other purposes, and I had made inquiries to determine for certain if the office was on the list of installations to be attacked and had been informed on October 16th that we would not under any circumstances be subject to attack. Our position in these matters was fully explained to the General and he understood it and was very friendly during the interview.

After departing from the General's office, it was confidentially ascertained that in all probability this inquiry resulted from the fact that [redacted]

This is furnished to the Bureau for its information, and no further action is being taken at the present time, inasmuch as there is apparently no need therefor, and the local military authorities definitely understand the Bureau's position in connection with these war games. In accordance with the Bureau's teletype of October 19th, the vigilance of this office is not being relaxed until the war games have actually ceased.

In the event there are any developments in connection with this matter, the Bureau will be immediately advised.

Director, FBI

Dear Sir:

I am transmitting attached hereto copy of communication received from Lieutenant Colonel BORIS T. PASH [redacted] San Francisco covers this jurisdiction. It will be noted that this refers to the report of Special Agent MILNES dated December 14, 1942, under the caption "UNKNOWN SUBJECT: JAMMED RIGHT RUDDER AND VERTICAL STABILIZER OF PRIVATE ARMY PLANE OF MAJOR GENERAL WALKER, FOURTH ARMORED DIVISION, CAMP YOUNG, INDIO, CALIFORNIA, DECEMBER 10, 1942". I am also transmitting to the Bureau a copy of my reply thereto under date of December 30th. The letter of Colonel PASH was not received until December 30th.

The foregoing incident, I believe, should be taken into consideration together with the incident occurring on January 1st involving alleged sabotage to Norden Bomb Sights which was covered by my teletype to the Bureau under the caption "UNKNOWN SUBJECT. TAMPERING WITH NORDEN BOMB SIGHT CONTAINERS, CONSOLIDATED AIRCRAFT CORPORATION, SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA, JANUARY ONE, NINETEEN FORTY-THREE. ESPIONAGE - SABOTAGE".

The foregoing definitely indicates to my mind, at least, a disagreeably aggressive attitude on the part of Colonel PASH. I desire to bring it to the Bureau's attention for this reason. There has not been the slightest trouble here with the local representatives of [redacted] Trouble, if and when it comes, and I believe it is coming, will emanate from the source indicated above. The Bureau may rest assured that the development of an antagonistically aggressive attitude on the part of this gentleman will be met with a corresponding attitude on the part of the Agent in Charge of this office.

This situation will be watched closely.

Very truly yours,

Lieutenant Colonel Boris T. Pash

Dear Colonel Pash:

I have your communication of [redacted] referring to report of December 14, 1942, by Special Agent JAMES E. MILNES of this office. This report is in connection with "UNKNOWN SUBJECT: JAMMED RIGHT RUDDER AND VERTICAL STABILIZER OF PRIVATE ARMY PLANE OF MAJOR GENERAL WALKER, FOURTH ARMORED DIVISION, CAMP YOUNG, INDIO, CALIFORNIA, DECEMBER 10, 1942".

I note that you point out that a review of this case indicates that this matter is within the jurisdiction of your office inasmuch as it pertains to military personnel and military equipment. I note your further statement to the effect that doubtless Agent MILNES did not clearly understand the situation. I further note your request that this investigation be called to the attention of your Los Angeles Branch Office which would have jurisdiction in this matter; further, that any information which might indicate the reason why investigation was undertaken by our Agent would be appreciated.

The investigation was undertaken by Special Agent MILNES upon the authorization of this office. The authorization of this office was given Agent MILNES because this office was informed by the Los Angeles office of the FBI that a request had been received, originating from one [redacted] to the effect that this office assist him in the investigation of this alleged attempted sabotage. This office had no means of knowing the channel through which this request came — as a matter of fact, would not have inquired particularly closely inasmuch as sabotage investigations, if undertaken at all, must be undertaken promptly. Field Offices of this Bureau have been authorized by the Bureau at Washington to undertake investigations of this kind pertaining to military personnel and equipment upon the request of Military Offices concerned. It would therefore appear that under the circumstances, this office was acting within its jurisdiction inasmuch as our assistance had been requested. I, of course, have no means of knowing whether [redacted] was a [redacted] or had authority to
